

Note from Naomi ♥

Hi there,

Thank you so much for taking a moment to visit and learn more about CSC Ministries. That truly means more than you may know.

This ministry was placed on my heart through my own journey as a mother. I understand the challenges, the prayers, and the deep desire to see our sons grow, succeed, and walk in purpose.

Here at CSC Ministries, we are committed to strengthening moms to strengthen sons. We come together to support, encourage, and build one another up—because no mother should have to walk this journey alone.

Whether it's through outreach, mentorship, or simply a listening ear, my prayer is that you feel seen, supported, and empowered.
